

DEEP LONGING FOR THE DIFFERENT

My exotic woman

How can I be longing for something I do not know?

My male child was feeling like hell

Messages from ancestral brothers and sisters enter your soul, mind and body.

In books and movies she enamored a girl from Ipenima to the North Country

This feeling of unfilled emptiness sensed all over my folks

Shook me deep inside threw me into individuation

Left alone with myself
the sexual grabbed whole of me

But time went slow before first woman

Soulace came from the joined my shakti

It took me two decades took ease body fighting mind
