

MALES' CAGE AND MAZE

Something is missing here and I cannot grasp what it is How can a mind of a boy be so filled with longing for the different ?

Within his social and family world he cannot find ways to fill his live,

Culture turned into a maze and cage drives young males outside their world,

Unto ships, into the army into far away woman's laps raping women in war and colonization

How totally bound Catholic, State and Empire's desolate Male Cravings

Where, oh, where, can we regain our greater body

And turn back to our dialectical roots
